We are so excited to bring you our new brochure, filled once again with a diverse range of performances and opportunities. We are particularly excited to include the first visit by the awesome Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain. Another highlight is Anda Union, a Mongolian group who showcase the power and magic of the rich and powerful Mongol traditions. Check them out and come and experience a truly unique evening.

So many more highlights across both the Tolbooth and The Albert Halls including the mighty Ralph McTell and Wizz Jones out on the road together, as are Aidan Moffat and RM Hubbert with music from their new album. We welcome Blazin' Fiddles with special guest Karen Matheson and the first Comic-Con to the Albert Halls, as well as a return of sorts for Solareye, the solo project of Stanley Odd frontman Dave Hook. And to commemorate 100 years since the end of WW1 we bring 'The Unknown Soldier', an Edinburgh festival hit. We also have the first 'Comedy Sneak Preview' by comedians testing out their Edinburgh material in the Lesser Hall. And direct from the Edinburgh Festival Fringe, we have the Russian String Orchestra – an outstanding 14-strong ensemble of young players. Many more performances are already on our web-site for later in the year, including Leo Sayer whose shows are selling out across the country, and the celebrated mountain biker Steve Peat.

Our classes are all starting up again, and don't forget to look out for our summer activities for children and young people which will be announced mid-May. Don't forget for Tolbooth performances, you can now park in the Old Town Jail in the evening. Culture Team

One Night in New Orleans

Ali Affleck & the Copper Cats

Fri 11 May, 8pm £13/£11

A heartfelt and humorous performance that resurrects the pioneering musicians of early blues and trad jazz. Award winning vocalist Ali Affleck is accompanied by all-star band Colin Steele on trumpet, Martin Foster on reeds, Danielle Price on tuba, Ross Milligan on guitar and Davide Rinaldi on drums, performing historically pivotal, outspoken songs from the late 1800s to the end of the prohibition era in 1933. 'I can think of no other young singer of Scottish Jazz who can deliver this kind of material with such authenticity and so swingingly as Alison' BBC Jazzhouse 'This show is a riot!' Edinburgh jazz festival

Norrie McCulloch + Scott Urquhart

Sat 12 May, 8pm £10

One of the best artists to have recently emerged in the Scottish folk/Americana scene, songwriter Norrie McCulloch continues to impress critics with 3 original albums and a tribute to Townes Van Zandt, alongside shows in the US and at the Glasgow Americana Festival. Tonight Norrie and his collaborators will perform new material and songs from previous releases. 'Caledonia, folk & country combined perfectly' Daily Express 'An astonishingly good songwriter' Americana UK.

Stirling-based fingerstyle guitarist Scott William Urquhart will open the evening. 'Delightful' Lauren Laverne BBC 6 Music

The Rising

Wed 16 May, 7.30pm £10 + 6% booking fee

The UK's number one Bruce Springsteen tribute band make a welcome return with their two-and-a-half-hour show covering all the classics from Springsteen's entire back catalogue. The critically acclaimed 7-piece ensemble replicate a Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band show in terms of precise musicianship and showmanship, delivering material with full vigour and passion – a key factor in building their reputation since forming in 2008. For any Springsteen enthusiast or the casual listener, an evening not to be missed.

Breabach

Thu 17 May, 8pm £16/£14

2018 will see Breabach back in the studio to record a sixth studio album as well continuing their adventures across the globe with tours of the UK and Australia to kick things off. Delivering an increasingly mature repertoire and live performance whilst continuing to build their reputation at the forefront of the UK's world and roots music scene, this is a band at the very top of their game and one not to be missed!

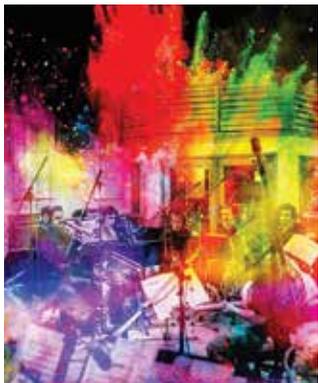

'As polished as it was passionate, matching fiery intensity with exquisite finesse, this was a magnificent set'
The Scotsman

Off The Page Steven Cole

Sat 19 May, 2pm £5/£3

Author Steven Cole, of Astrosaurus, Secret Agent Mummy, Magic Ink, Doctor Who, Young Bonds and many more, leads audiences on a laugh-a-minute, high energy, ukulele-accompanied master class in 'chucking imagination at words' (aka telling stories)

The Tommy Smith Youth Jazz Orchestra

Sun 20 May, 2.30pm £12.50/£5 Young Scot Card Holder

School-age children free with a paying adult (2 per ticket)

Enjoy a wonderful afternoon of scintillating jazz from a line up showcasing endless talent, improvisational skills, exuberance and verve.

These young musicians, under the direction of leading saxophonist Tommy Smith play with a collective maturity well beyond their years and feature soloists of startling ambition and creativity.

These gifted players pay tribute to great jazz legends and bring alive the music of jazz with a selection of fabulous tunes ranging from Ellington, Basie, Mingus or Gillespie classics to present day big band charts.

Anda Union

Sat 26 May, 8pm £16.50

Anda Union play a unique style of Mongolian music. The band all trained in traditional Mongolian music from a young age, and are accomplished singers, moving fluently from hoomai, the guttural throat song, to the clear long notes of ortinduu, long-song. They also play many instruments including the morin huur (horse head fiddle), the maodun chaoer, a three-holed flute, as well as Mongolian versions of the lute, and mouth harp.

The sight and sound of this band is truly unique and quite extraordinary. Mongols have a strong oral tradition that is passed from generation to generation. The band are driven by their thirst to share the power and magic of the rich and powerful Mongol traditions and culture, and to save their endangered sacred grasslands and their ancient nomadic way of life. And in the process their audiences all over the world have been stunned by their exquisite performances and their story.

Strange Behaviours

Solareye

Thur 24 May, doors 7.30pm £8 advance/£10 on the door

£6 Young Scot Card Holder

Solareye is the solo moniker of Dave Hook, the enigmatic and lyrically acrobatic frontman of hip-hop band Stanley Odd who makes his return to the Tolbooth touring his latest solo album 'All These People Are Me'. The Edinburgh-based emcee has forged a shimmering career penning fun, clever, and accessible hip-hop with a world-wise and socially conscious message. He can flip from humorous and witty to hard-hitting and poignant, with the versatility to deliver each live with a real gravity. The musical backing is always sharp, the new record packed with dark synth lines and stuttering electronic drums. Compelling stuff.

The Isle of Love

Fri 1 Jun, 8pm £13/£11

A bittersweet tale of love and loss infused with songs featuring the quirky lyrics and musical genius of Adam Ross from indie-pop band Randolph's Leap, The Isle of Love captures life on a Scottish Hebridean island... the good, the bad, the glorious and the complicated. Expect laughter, tears, live music – and perhaps you might fall a little in love with The Isle of Love.

Innes Watson's Guitar Colloquium

Sat 2 Jun, 8pm £12/£10 /£6 under 18

Guitar Colloquium portrays new Scottish music for guitar at its very best. Originating as a New Voices commission at Celtic Connections in 2011, Innes's compositions for guitars, strings, bass and kit have been widely embedded within the modern Scottish music repertoire. A leading instrumentalist, tutor and composer in Scottish contemporary and traditional music, Innes is well known as a member of the ground-breaking Treacherous Orchestra, as well as first choice accompanist for many. This performance allows him to take centre stage. Incorporating song and stories amongst the tunes, tonight Innes will be joined by fellow guitarists Barry Reid and Chas McKenzie, Steve Byrnes on guitar and drums and Duncan Lyall on bass.

Guitar Colloquium Workshop

Sat 2 June, 2.30–4 pm £8/£6

For all levels and ages.

A workshop led by Innes and his band drawing on material from Guitar Colloquium. There are arrangements for all abilities, as Innes says 'having been employed as a guitar tutor to the young and experienced, amateur and the excellent there will be something for everyone.'

Strange Behaviours

Irma Vep

Fri 8 Jun, doors 7.30pm £6 advance/£8 on the door
£5 Young Scot Card Holder

The ever-intriguing, ever-pleasing project of one Edwin Stevens. A cheerily shadowed figure wrapped in cultish obscurity with a knack for stirring his swamp of garage pop, psych jangle and heavily treated vocal hooks into something consistently fresh, progressive, inspiring and fun. A nomadic creative energy found sprawled out between his native Wales and adopted Glasgow, Ed and co are regularly championed by heroic Radio 6 Music DJ Mark Riley, touring consistently and collaborating regularly with the left-field and noisy peripheral types across the UK. Come grab a handful of new favourite songs and have a boogie.

Ralph McTell & Wizz Jones About Time Too

Fri 15 Jun, 8pm £20

Ralph McTell and Wizz Jones' first recording together after a 50 year musical friendship, aptly titled About Time was released in 2016. They had such a great time, they decided to go back into the studio, and recorded 'About Time Too'. As Ralph joked, 'we felt we should keep up the momentum while we've still got time'. The track list is made up of Ralph and Wizz's favourite songs by other writers; some learned at the beginning of their careers as buskers, and others picked up on their respective musical journeys.

Ralph McTell is best known for his hits 'Streets of London' and 'Clare to Here' and his career has taken him across the globe. Wizz Jones is cited as a profound inspiration and influence on musicians such as Keith Richards and Rod Stewart, whose songs have been performed and recorded by many including Bruce Springsteen.

Tommy Smith & Brian Kellock

Sat 16 Jun, 8pm £14/£12

Saxophonist Tommy Smith and pianist Brian Kellock are Scotland's international jazz ambassadors, having worked with jazz's leading players and wowed audiences on both sides of the Atlantic. Recently acclaimed as 'world class' by Jazz Journal, they are master musicians who spin classic songs into creative gold and they bring a special musical relationship to the stage. Their concerts are intimate and spontaneous: music played with passion and tenderness and presented with humour and bonhomie.

Heidi Talbot & John McCusker

Fri 22 Jun, 8pm £16/£14

Two of folk music's most highly regarded and celebrated musicians celebrate their tenth year as musical partners with the release of a new EP and an extensive UK and European tour. They have both toured all over the globe in each other's live bands and with a veritable who's who of the music world, but this will be the first time the pair collaborate exclusively as a duo. 'Simply vocal heaven' The Sunday Times 'A voice that's both awestruck and tender' The New York Times '(McCusker is) one of the UK's most gifted and versatile musicians in any genre' The Guardian

Fred MacAulay 30 YEARS ON

Sat 23 Jun, 8pm £15/£13

On tour to mark 30 years of stand-up. In May 1988, a young(ish) Fred MacAulay made his stand-up debut at the Mayfest 'So You Think You're Funny' competition in Glasgow when he talked about his (VERY) young family coupled with his wry observations about society and politics. These are themes which fans of Fred will be familiar with.

Fred has appeared on TV's QI, Have I Got News For You and Mock The Week, as well as Radio 4's Newsquiz, Unbelievable Truth and Just A Minute... as well as his massively successful 2017 stand up show described simply as 'A Masterclass'.

Tom Allen Absolutely

Thu 28 Jun, 8pm £14 Age 14+ under 16s to be accompanied by an adult

Parental Advisory - likely to be swearing & adult content

The sharply dressed, well-spoken, disparagingly camp son of working class Bromley, Tom Allen embarks on his debut solo tours. In the last year Tom has supported Sarah Millican around the world, sold out his Edinburgh and London runs and even passed his driving test! As seen on Mock The Week, 8 Out of 10 Cats Does Countdown, Live at the Apollo, The Great British Bake Off's Extra Slice, The John Bishop Show, Channel 4's Comedy Gala at the O2 and heard on Radio 4's Just a Minute and News Quiz

'riotous stuff, perfectly delivered' Scotsman

Aidan Moffat & RM Hubbert

Fri 29 Jun, doors 7.30pm £16/£18 on door Standing

Age 14+ under 16 to be accompanied by an adult

Moffat and Hubbert are on tour performing songs from their new album. 'The album title 'Here Lies the Body' has a dual meaning - sex and death' says Moffat who, since his early days with Arab Strap, has explored these subjects with a grace and grit that plunges deep into the human soul. But this is no re-hash of the past, rather a further leap forward for Moffat, teaming up with fellow Scot, singer and guitarist extraordinaire, RM Hubbert, for this new project.

The result is a moving, diverse record of great beauty that straddles a line between light and dark and faith and fear; at once fun, funny, and forlorn; both melancholic and sanguine, and inherently melodic throughout. Their first collaboration, Car Song, was released in 2012 on Hubbert's Thirteen Lost & Found album, which went on to win the Scottish Album of the Year Award - only a year after Moffat won the same award for his work with Bill Wells.

Josh Rouse + Support

Sat 7 Jul, 8pm £15 Age 14+ under 16 to be accompanied by an adult

Born in Nebraska, but with a sound forged in Nashville, Josh Rouse is enjoying a 'streak of excellence' (Allmusic.com) right now. Since his breakthrough album 1972 (released 2003), his 'straightforward, warm-blooded pop' (Pitchfork) has gone from strength to strength. When he lends his mercurial falsetto to tear-soaked lyrics, Rouse conjures a lush sound that welcomes the listener like an old friend.

You don't have to work hard to enjoy Rouse's music. His songs present themselves to you with an open heart, an innate intelligence and an absolute lack of pretension. They are clear-eyed, empathetic and penetrating. His most recent release, The Embers of Time, is one of his strongest—Rouse (now living in Spain) called it 'my surreal, ex-pat, therapy record'

The Stirling Bridge International Arts Festival presents

The Alistair McCulloch Trio & Fiddle Frenzy

Thu 12 Jul, 7.30pm £13/£11

The Alistair McCulloch Trio features champion fiddler McCulloch, alongside former Capercaillie whistle wizard Marc Duff, and past Scottish folk musician of the year, Aaron Jones of Old Blind Dogs & The Kate Rusby Band on bouzouki, guitar and vocals. Collectively the trio has gained a formidable reputation for its dynamic concert performances. Fiddle Frenzy, all the way from Nashville, Tennessee, are a dynamic performance group of young fiddlers from the Blair School of Music who are very excited to be bringing their style of music to Scotland!

Vishtèn

Sat 21 Jul, 8pm £13/£11

Acadian powerhouse trio Vishtèn continue to dazzle audiences with their fiery blend of traditional French songs and original instrumentals. Hailing from Prince Edward Island and the Magdalen Islands of Quebec, twin sisters Emmanuelle and Pastelle LeBlanc join with Pascal Miousse to form a sophisticated sonic signature. Their tight sibling harmonies, layered foot percussion, virtuoso acoustic and electric instrumentation create an expansive sound that would be difficult to reproduce, in sheer complexity, by a quintet – let alone a trio. Vishtèn's trademark blend of fiddle, guitar, accordion, harmonium, whistles, piano, bodhrán, jaw harp, moog, electric guitar and percussive dance make for a unique tour de force of the traditional and contemporary.

'Instrumentally this is a class act. Vishtèn have all the bounce and bravado of Quebec music, plus the soulful melodies of the Acadian tradition.'

Summer Ceilidhs

Thu 26 Jul & Wed 15 Aug, 7.30pm £10/£8 for groups of 4+

Come and enjoy a great night out in great company, with a ceilidh led by the International Ceilidh Collective featuring some of Scotland's finest traditional musicians. The band will lead you through the best known Scottish dances. For all levels and ages – a 'caller' will talk you through the steps – just bring your dancing shoes.

Laura Cortese & The Dance Cards

Fri 27 Jul, 8pm £13/£11

Laura Cortese with her band The Dance Cards serves up songs with panache and zing. It's bold and elegant fare, schooled in the lyrical rituals of folk music and backed by grooves that alternately inspire Cajun two-stepping and rock 'n' roll swagger. The band kicked off 2018 in style, flying in for two big shows at Glasgow's Celtic Connections festival, promoting their current album, California Calling, on Compass Records, which has been winning them rave reviews and much radio exposure. 'This was a celebration of American string playing par excellence' Songlines

Ceilidh Trail Performance Fèis Rois, Fèis Fhoirt and Fèis Phàislig

Sat 4 Aug, 7.30pm £7/£4 under 18s free

A triple bill of traditional music performed by some of the most talented young players from across Scotland, the Forth Valley and Paisley areas respectively. The Ceilidh trail is an initiative offering young trad musicians the opportunity to play and tour during the summer. Tonight brings together the national Fèis Rois, our own local Fèis Fhoirt along with Fèis Phàislig Ceilidh Trail bands. Each band will perform a set including a mix of tunes and songs. The Fèisean are an organisation set up to encourage young people to learn about Gaelic music and culture.

The Gary Innes Band ERA

Thu 23 Aug, 8pm £15/£13

Highland-born accordionist and one of the founding members of award-winning Scottish super-group Mànran, Gary Innes has been playing Scottish traditional music for over 15 years. Gary launched his second solo album ERA at Celtic Connections 2017 to great critical acclaim. Tonight Gary will be featuring material from ERA with a stellar band, Siobhan Miller on vocals, Steve Byrne on guitar and Ewen Henderson on fiddle. 'ERA is more than one man's reflection, it's a view into the world of a master at work' Tim Carroll
'Gary is a Jack of all trades and a master of all'
Mark Radcliffe, BBC Radio 2

Rose Room with Konrad Wiszniewski

Fri 24 Aug, 8pm £14/£12

Scottish Jazz Awards finalists Rose Room's first performance at the Tolbooth earned them a standing ovation. Their vigorous and vivacious performances go down a storm with any audience as they serve up their 1930s 'Hot Club' standards, Gypsy Jazz favourites and self-penned originals with virtuosity, verve and panache. Based in Glasgow, the quartet is fronted by award-winning violinist and 'sophisticated songstress' Seonaid Aitken, with Scotland's No.1 guitar maker Jimmy Moon on double bass and Celtic Connections' Danny Kyle award-winners 'Swing Guitars' Tam Gallagher and Tom Watson on rhythm and solo guitars respectively. Top Scottish saxophonist Konrad Wiszniewski's 'ravishingly beautiful tone' lends itself perfectly to the Rose Room sound and his improvisations on their gypsy jazz repertoire are like vibrant fireworks! A match made in swing-jazz heaven!

'The hottest ticket in Scotland right now!' Jazz Scotland
'Classy, very accomplished' The Herald
'As close to the sound of the great Stephane Grappelli as I think you're going to hear in Scotland' BBC Radio Scotland

Grist to the Mill presents

The Unknown Soldier

Fri 31 Aug, 8pm £13/£11

A moving, often humorous, but above all thought provoking new theatre piece by the award nominated writer Ross Ericson. It looks at the First World War from a new perspective, through the eyes of a man who has survived the carnage but who finds it hard to return home. It is a story of betrayal, of the deep friendship that can only be found between those who fight and die together, and of a world that has changed forever. Ericson uses his military experience to give this play an authentic voice, including some family stories, making this a very personal piece. The Unknown Soldier sold out at Edinburgh Fringe Festival 2016 with stunning reviews and was shortlisted for the Brighton Fringe Award for Excellence in 2015.

The Frisson Foundation presents

The Forth Valley Glee Challenge Regional Final

Counterfeit Sixties

Sat 12 May, 7.30pm £18/£16 & £17/£15

A showcase of the great bands of this unforgettable time. The fantastic music of The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, The Who, The Dave Clark Five, The Kinks and The Monkees – to name but a few – all recreated in this stunning show. As well as the music the evening encompasses everything from that period, from the clothes that were worn, to flashbacks from television history, including adverts and clips from the original bands. The members of the band have individually worked with notable sixties' artists such as The Searchers, The Ivy League, The Fortunes, The Tremeloes and many more. Re-live the sounds of the swinging sixties and join us for a night of nostalgia!

Islands in the Stream

The Music of Dolly Parton & Kenny Rogers

Thu 17 May, 7.30pm £25/£23 & £24/£22

Enjoy the songs of the Queen and King of country music – leave your 9 to 5 worries at the door and get ready for a night in the company of Country Music Royalty! This thigh-slapping stage show brings together the beloved glamour and personality of Dolly, along with Kenny's charisma and energy with hit after hit including: Jolene, Ruby, 9 to 5, Lucille, Here You Come Again, The Gambler, I Will Always Love You, Coward of the Country, plus the smash hit Islands in the Stream. Enjoy a superb score and supreme musicianship as we bring the house down with the ultimate tribute to two country music legends. As seen on Sky TV, featuring Stars in Their Eyes' Kenny Rogers

Phil & Aly

Fri 18 May, 7.30pm £18/£17/£15

Aly Bain and Phil Cunningham have become a national institution with their incomparable mastery of fiddle and accordion, bringing excellence in traditional music to venues across the country. Individually they pursue other ventures in performance, television and education but it is when they tour together that they truly shine with over quarter of a century of well-honed skills and hilarious banter delighting audiences everywhere.

The Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain

Wed 23 May, 7.30pm £25/£23 or £24/£22

Concession under 18s only

The Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain has become a global sensation and nothing short of a UK national treasure. 'Heresy II Heritage', their new tour, charts the Uke's rise from curiosity to virtuosity, from village hall to the Royal Albert Hall. The Ukes of GB have performed for the British Royal Family, the BBC Proms, Sydney Opera House and Carnegie Hall, but heretics they remain, poking fun at the cultural elite, defying you to believe their own hype, bemused by all the hot air. On an ongoing 'hand-luggage only' world tour, the Ukes provide pure entertainment, dead-pan British humour and irresistible foot-tapping music. They are masters of the unexpected, whether re-imagining folk songs, twisting classical music favourites, uncovering quirky versions of rock covers, or playing the performers' own all-original compositions. 'Iconoclastic. Unabashed genre crashing antics. Nothing is spoof proof' Sunday Times 'Most people have to die before they become immortal. These ukulele superstars have no such worries' New Musical Express

Sat 23 June, 7.30pm £20/£21

One of Ireland's best loved singers Mary Duff, best known for her appearances alongside Daniel O'Donnell for many years, is increasingly enjoying solo success and her genuinely charismatic and warm performances continue to charm audiences old and new. Mary's live television appearance in front of a massive 60 million American viewers, resulted in a number 2 on the Billboard World Music Charts, and her album, 'The Ultimate Collection', a 'best of' album featuring 40 of Mary's best loved songs, was also her first ever British chart hit. Not bad for a small country girl from Ireland, who's wonderfully emotive, yet quietly powerful voice, was discovered by accident when she was only twelve years old! 2018's touring takes her across the globe, and features regular special guest Jordan Mogey a young man with an incredibly mature singing voice.

Comedy Sneak Peek – 1 Night Only!

TOPFEST

The family arts festival returns in October, with plans being formulated for our usual big day-long celebration of arts and music at the Top Of The Town, plus extended activities across the partner venues during the October holidays. Stirling Castle, The Engine Shed, Macrobert, The Smith Art Gallery & Museum, Artlink Central and the Stirling Council Creative Learning and Culture teams are all back on board to collaborate in what we hope will be another great event designed to entertain and inspire.

A Thank You to our Intern, Leo McArdle

Over the past 3 months we've been lucky to be able to bring local musician and former Pump Up The Jam veteran Leo McArdle into the Tolbooth team! Here on an internship focusing on our Music Development projects, set up in partnership with UK Youth, Leo has been assisting with teaching at both our in-house and outreach projects, as well as helping stage manage events, learning the ropes on live sound, and putting his film and media skills to use in promoting what we do. See the Tolbooth YouTube channel for a short film on Leo's time here. Thanks Leo, and all the best at Napier Uni!

GLASGOW 2018 EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIPS

FESTIVAL 2018

To accompany the European Championships taking place in Berlin and Glasgow in August, there is a cultural programme to run alongside. Whilst most of the events are in Glasgow, Stirling is involved through the cycle time trial. There will be various activities across Stirling, including Cycle Cinema from Macrobert Arts Centre and Tetra-Decathlon from Showroom in Association with Macrobert Arts Centre

If you are an emerging film-maker (aged 16 to 25) interested in working with leading professional film-maker, Tomás Sheridan to develop your documentary film-making practice whilst co-creating a sports documentary for the programme? Then apply to be part of the Cycle Cinema Film Crew.

CYCLE CINEMA

COMES TO TOWN – SUN 21 AUG

SITE: Beside the Engine Shed
 In their off-grid, tented Cinema you can be entertained from your seat or join in the pedalling to power the projector! This fun-filled, family event will feature coverage of championship events, sports-themed documentaries and films. And there are opportunities for film-makers and volunteers to get involved! Are you a short film-maker with an interest in cycling with a short film that could be included in the Cycle Cinema programme? Or if you could be a volunteer cyclists, (individuals or cycle groups) to pedal the bikes that power the Cycle Cinema.

To get involved in any of these activities contact:
cyclecinema@macrobertartscentre.org
 Cycle Cinema is a Macrobert Arts Centre project, supported by Festival 2018, Stirling Council and Historic Environment Scotland. Tetra-Decathlon is by Showroom in association with Macrobert Arts Centre, supported by Festival 2018.
